

Andrew Ellenwood, RN, MSN, MBA, FNP-C

Andrew graduated with honors from the University of Saint Francis in 2000, earning his bachelor's of science in nursing. After working as an RN for nearly 10 years, he went back to school and obtained an MBA with an emphasis on health care management from Indiana Wesleyan University in 2011. In 2012, he returned to Indiana Wesleyan, earning a master's degree in nursing with an emphasis on primary care, graduating in 2015.

Andrew is a member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners and has been with OrthoIndy since 2015.

Practice Focus

- General Orthopedics
- Urgent Care