

Sean Sreniawski, MPAS, PA-C, ATC

Sean received his bachelor's degree from DePauw University in kinesiology with an emphasis in sports medicine in 2000. He obtained a master's degree in athletic training at Indiana State University in 2001. After working as a certified athletic trainer for eight years, he obtained a second master's degree in physician assistant studies from University of Florida in 2011.

Sean remains a certified athletic trainer along with his certification as a physician assistant. He is a member of the American Academy of Physician Assistants, Indiana Academy of Physician Assistants and the Physician Assistant Education Association. Sean splits his time working in OrthoIndy Urgent Care and teaching physician assistant students at Indiana University. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching his children, working in the garden and weightlifting.

Practice Focus

- General Orthopedics
- Urgent Care