

Christy Fancher, PT

Christy graduated from Purdue University with a bachelor's in movement and sports science degree in 1992. In 1995, she graduated Indiana University with a bachelor's degree in physical therapy.

She started her career at OrthoIndy in March 2010. Her primary role is an inpatient physical therapist at OrthoIndy Hospital Main. Her favorite part of being a physical therapist is helping patients get to a place where they flourish upon discharge from our hospital.

OrthoIndy Hospital is physician owned and operated.
