

Shelby Lane, PA-C

Shelby received her bachelor's degree from Indiana University with an emphasis in sports medicine and athletic training in 2005. She went on to obtain a master's degree in higher education at Arizona State University where she worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 2005 to 2007. After working as a certified athletic trainer for seven years, she went back to obtain a second master's degree in physician assistant studies from Indiana State University, where she graduated in 2014.

Shelby remains a certified athletic trainer along with her certification as a physician assistant. She is a member of the American Academy of Physician Assistants, Indiana Academy of Physician Assistants, and the Physician Assistants in Orthopedic Surgery organization.

In her spare time, she enjoys spending time with her husband and their only child, an English Bulldog named Walter.

Practice Focus

- General Orthopedics
- Urgent Care