

Hillary Collins, PTA

Hillary graduated from Lake Land College in 2012 receiving an associate's of liberal arts degree. In 2015, she graduated from the University of Indianapolis, receiving an associate's of science degree as a physical therapy assistant. She is also certified in the Graston technique and has a BLS in CPR. She started her career at OrthoIndy in November 2015 and is currently a physical therapy assistant at OrthoIndy South Physical Therapy. Her favorite part of her job is being able to make a positive impact on the patients that come to OrthoIndy and help them get back to doing the things they enjoy.

OrthoIndy Hospital is physician owned and operated.
