

Kirk Mulroney, PT

Kirk graduated from the University of Indianapolis in 1999, receiving his bachelor's of science degree. He went to the Krannert School of Physical Therapy and received his master's in physical therapy in 2001.

Kirk is also ASTYM certified. He started his career at OrthoIndy in December 2017 and is currently a staff physical therapist at OrthoIndy South Physical Therapy. His favorite part about working in physical therapy is building relationships with patients as they progress and return to their normal activities.

OrthoIndy Hospital is physician owned and operated.
