

Lance Higgins, PTA

Lance received an associate's degree as a physical therapist assistant from Vincennes University in 1998. In 2017, he graduated from Indiana University with a bachelor's degree in finance. Lance started his career at OrthoIndy in 2005. He is currently a physical therapist assistant on the inpatient unit at OrthoIndy Hospital Main. He also serves as the senior therapist for the inpatient rehab team. His favorite thing about working in physical therapy is the opportunity to help people who have been hurting for a long time start the process of getting back on their feet again.

OrthoIndy Hospital is physician owned and operated.
